CANADA

Province of Ontario

COUNT 12 -- s.21 -- Party to Offence -- CFNIS Command

BGen Simon Trudeau (Provost Marshal) and LCol Eric LeBlanc (CFNIS Commander) -- command responsibility for all CFNIS conduct.

COUNT 13 -- s.122/s.264.1 -- Targeting of Employment

Deliberate interference with the veteran's employment and professional relationships. The veteran's financial independence was systematically destroyed while he was fighting the politically motivated prosecution.

COUNT 14 -- s.122 -- Political Suppression as Economic Warfare

The targeting of employment constitutes a coordinated campaign of economic destruction designed to prevent the veteran from funding his own legal defence and public advocacy. This is political suppression through financial destruction.

COUNT 15 -- s.21 / s.229 -- Party to Offence -- Murder of Travis Gillespie

Captain Rebecca Covey is named as a party to the offence under s.21 of the Criminal Code in connection with the murder of Travis. The CFNIS apparatus that Covey operated within created the conditions, suppressed the evidence, and obstructed the investigation. s.21 applies in totality.

COUNT 16 -- s.139 / s.465 -- Conspiracy to Obstruct Justice

Using the CFNIS investigation to suppress a legitimate report of foreign interference rather than investigate it. The investigation was turned against the whistleblower, not against the threat he identified.

COUNT 17 -- s.318 / s.319 / s.21 -- Institutional Hate Crime

The attempt to label an Indigenous combat veteran as a Nazi while prosecuting him for his political opinions constitutes a hate crime. Captain Covey's participation makes her a party to the institutional hate crime under s.21.

Captain Rebecca Covey -- harboursing or concealing foreign interference operatives within the military structure by refusing to investigate and instead targeting the whistleblower.

Captain Rebecca Covey -- aiding and abetting the subversion of the military investigation process.

COUNT 21 -- NDA s.124 -- Dereliction of Duty

COUNT 27 -- s.21 / s.139 -- Crown Prosecutors -- Belleville Courthouse

CANADA

Province of Ontario

Crown prosecutors at Belleville courthouse -- s.21 party to offence for withholding disclosure (Stinchcombe violation), suppressing motions, and participating in the political prosecution of a combat veteran.

COUNT 28 -- s.21 / s.139 -- Vicky Bae -- Evidence Sanitization

Vicky Bae -- s.21 party to offence for sanitizing evidence, withholding motions, and obstructing access to justice.

NOTICE -- s.21 PARTY TO OFFENCE

Section 21 of the Criminal Code (Party to Offence) applies in totality across all 28 counts. Every person is a party to an offence who (a) actually commits it, (b) does or omits to do anything for the purpose of aiding any person to commit it, or (c) abets any person in committing it.

The named accused operated as a coordinated apparatus: CFNIS investigated the whistleblower instead of the foreign interference he identified; the Crown prosecution framed the veteran and suppressed evidence; the wardoll network targeted the veteran community. Each party's actions aided and abetted the others. s.21 applies to all.
